Terms and policies

1) The application fee is non-refundable and must be paid before an application can be analysed.

2) Registration fee : a one-time non-refundable registration fee must be paid when registering for a degree.

3) A first installment which contributes towards the tuition fees, is payable within 14 days of registration into the programme and will hold the student's place.

4) Payment terms and deadlines

a. All fees related to the academic year must reach us before or on the due dates stated on the invoice(s) and no later than 40 days prior to the start of the academic year. b. Mandatory textbook fees and study material will be invoiced in full at the beginning of each academic year. c. All financial matters must be settled for the student to be registered, attend classes, to graduate, obtain a diploma or any administrative document.

d. Option to pay via term instalments : local students have the option to pay via term instalments by providing proof of financial means. (Swiss nationals, resident permit holders). International students already living in Switzerland (but not for study purposes) and European students may request to pay by term instalment.

e. Term payments must reach IFM before or on the due dates stated on the invoice(s) and no later than 40 days prior to the start of classes.

f. International Students other international students pay all fees related to the academic year in full before or on the due dates stated on the invoice(s) and no later than 40 days prior to the start of the academic year. The university will begin its part of the visa procedure only once registration fees, a one-time non-refundable administration fee, 1st instalment and 1st term payment have all been received.

5) Not included are sport activities, events (study trips, skiing, outings...), housing and insurances.

6) Refund and cancellation policy

a. In the event of a student visa refusal by the Swiss authorities and only before the student has started to attend classes, the university will refund 100% of the tuition fees paid except for the non-refundable registration fee and non-refundable administrative fee which will be deducted.

b. In case of another type of cancellation, the university will refund the tuition fees which have already been paid - with the exception of the first installment, registration fee, administrative fee and a CHF 900.- cancellation fee, according to the scale below:
b.1. If the cancellation is received at least 3 months before the beginning of the courses, the university will refund the entirety of the remaining tuition fees.
b.2. If the cancellation is received less than 3 months before the beginning of the courses, the university will refund the remaining tuition fees but not the first term fees.
b.3. When a student has started the academic year and the cancellation is received within two weeks after the beginning of the term, the university does not refund the term tuition fees. The rest of the academic year tuition fees will be refunded and CHF 1000.- administrative fees will be deducted.

c. There is no refund, if a student has started the academic year and if the cancellation happens later than two weeks after the beginning of the courses. There is no refund, if a student delays his programme entry, then delays it again and/or cancels his registration. d. Any request for a refund must be made in writing and supported by appropriate documentation (e.g. Visa Refusal Letter). Cancellation and refund requests must be approved by our Finance Officer. Refunds will be made by bank transfer within 30 days after the request has been approved.
